WHO IT SUITS

People ready for a real break

- People at a turning point who want space to think.
- Busy people tired of the noise who want a phone-light, quiet routine.
- Anyone who wants a month without alcohol, in good company.

What it is NOT: not medical, not rehab, and not for anyone who needs medical or psychological care right now. Every guest brings a fit-to-join letter from their own doctor.

GOOD PARTNERS

You know these people

- Creators who talk about sober living, simple food, travel or slowing down.
- Podcasters whose listeners ask for a calm, alcohol-free month away.
- Coaches (fitness, life, career, executive) whose clients want a clean break.
- Travel advisors and concierges who plan long stays.

HOW IT WORKS

Simple and in writing

- 2 Terms in writing first. We sign a short agreement before you mention us.
- 3 Introduce by email (copying them) or with your own link or code.
- 4 They apply themselves at thequietmonth.com/apply. Sami decides every guest.
- 5 They join and pay, you get 10%, within 14 days of our receipt.

THE RULES

Honest and disclosed

- Always disclose: #ad or "affiliate" next to every mention, not hidden in a bio.
- No health or medical claims of any kind. Say only what our site says.
- Never publish or guess the location. Partners are not told it either.
- Never send us anyone's health details. Guests talk to Sami privately.
- No spam, no bought lists, no fake reviews, no ads on our name.
